The Charles W. Lamden School of Accountancy (School) at San Diego State University (SDSU) invites applications for an assistant professor tenure-track position. An active research agenda and a teaching specialization in taxation are required. Applicants should have completed a Ph.D. or DBA in accounting or business administration by August 2015. Demonstrated research accomplishments, teaching and business experience, and professional certification are desirable.

The School expects applicants to:

- Perform quality academic research in the fields of accounting and taxation.
- Engage in innovative teaching for culturally diverse students in undergraduate and graduate programs.
- Participate in service to SDSU and the accounting profession.

The SDSU College of Business Administration is AACSB accredited with approximately 4,000 undergraduate business majors and over 500 graduate students. The School is separately accredited by the AACSB with approximately 850 undergraduate and 170 graduate students. The School’s academic programs are a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (BSBA) – Accounting Major, Master of Science in Accountancy (MSA), and a combined 4+1 degree program (BMACC). The graduate programs include a tax specialization. The School faculty includes fourteen tenure-track faculty members, four emeritus professors, and several full- and part-time lecturers. Support for research includes access to databases (e.g., WRDS), funding for approved projects through grant programs, and graduate student research assistants.

The position is available starting August 2015 and contingent upon State funding. Consideration of applicants will begin immediately and is reviewed on an ongoing basis until January 15, 2015. Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience. If interested, email or send a letter indicating the position title and area of teaching specialization, current curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation, evidence of teaching effectiveness, and accomplishments in scholarly activities to:
