The Charles W. Lamden School of Accountancy (School) at San Diego State University (SDSU) invites applications for an assistant professor tenure-track position. An active research agenda and a teaching specialization in the areas of taxation or financial accounting are required. Applicants should have completed a Ph.D. or DBA in accounting or business administration by August 2016. Demonstrated research accomplishments, teaching and business experience, and professional certification are desirable.

The School expects applicants to:

- Perform quality academic research in the field of accounting.
- Engage in innovative teaching for culturally diverse students in undergraduate and graduate programs.
- Participate in service to SDSU and the accounting profession.

The SDSU College of Business Administration is AACSB accredited with approximately 4,000 undergraduate business majors and over 500 graduate students. The School of Accountancy is separately accredited by the AACSB with approximately 850 undergraduate and 180 graduate students. The School’s academic programs are a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (BSBA) – Accounting Major, Master of Science in Accountancy (MSA), and a combined 4+1 degree program (BMACC). The School’s faculty includes fourteen tenure-track faculty members, and several full- and part-time lecturers. Support for research includes access to databases (e.g., WRDS), funding for approved projects through grant programs, and graduate student research assistants.

SDSU is a large, diverse, urban university and Hispanic-Serving Institution with a commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusive excellence. Our campus community is diverse in many ways, including race, religion, color, sex, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, pregnancy, medical condition, and covered veteran status. We strive to build and sustain a welcoming environment for all. SDSU is seeking applicants with demonstrated experience in and/or commitment to teaching and working effectively with individuals from diverse backgrounds and members of underrepresented groups.

The position is available starting August 2016 and contingent upon State funding. Consideration of applicants will begin immediately and is reviewed on an ongoing basis until position is filled. Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience. Apply via Interfolio at http://apply.interfolio.com/30203. The contact person for this position is:
