Notes from College of Business Administration (CBA) Graduate Curriculum Committee Meeting

28 January 2013, 9:30:00-11:30am in the DCR.

Present: Damon Fleming (Chair), David Ely, Heather Honea, Karen Ehrhart, Jim Beatty, Nik Varaiya, Christine Probett, and Kelly Lindley

Guest: Chamu Sundaramurthy

1. New student representative. The faculty welcomed Kelly Lindley, the new MBA student representative to the Committee. Thanks to Probett for identifying and recruiting Lindley to serve on the Committee.

2. MBA curriculum revision. The Committee continued work on MBA program curriculum revision process, discussing elements of the core courses and program structure:
   a. Fleming and Beatty shared ideas with the Committee on possible examples on how to incorporate decision making into the MBA core. A sub-committee was formed (Fleming, Honea, and Beatty) to draft a proposal for a new course on decision making. This course proposal will be discussed at the next meeting.
   b. Chamu Sundaramurthy was invited to discuss the development of a new strategy course for the MBA program. She shared her insights and experience with teaching MGT 626 and how to effectively develop a strategy course for the MBA program. She will share the syllabus for the strategy course she is teaching for the EMBA program.

3. Meeting adjourned. The next scheduled meeting is 11 February 2013 from 09:30-11:30am in the DCR.
