The Committee discussed a memo and accompanying materials sent to Grudnitski and Krentler from Gail Naughton, describing a proposed International Business program that would be delivered through the Chinese University in Hong Kong (CUHK). Department Chairs have been asked to evaluate a number of CUHK courses for equivalencies. Krentler agreed to ask Steve Loughrin-Sacco, Chair of the International Business department, for further clarification regarding the nature of the program. The Committee agreed that Grudnitski and Krentler’s response to the Dean should include a request that International Business provide a complete program proposal to the CBA.

Meeting adjourned at 11:25 p.m.

Next Meeting: Monday, May 2, 10:00 a.m.; Dean’s Conference Room
